set up a routine and discipline yourself.
share revision time between subjects.
to keep up with your revision.
build your revision around your "life".
get a balance between revision and leisure time.

It avoids wasting time trying to decide what to do for each revision session.

It avoids last minute rushes the night before an exam.

S.M.A.R.T REVISION

REMEMBER - THERE IS NO ONE RIGHT WAY TO REVISE . The RIGHT way is the one which works for you and will consist of a number of different strategies.

HOWEVER, ALL revision should be:

S mall - break information down into chunks

M anageable - in terms of time

A ctive - using multi-sensory techniques

R epeated and recalled

T ested

Create a revision timetable and divide your list into weeks - e.g. what will you learn in week 1 / 2 etc.?

Follow your revision timetable and AGREE it with your parents - they want to support you.

HOW DO I REVISE....

Schedule in time to recap the work you did the day before - this helps you to remember more effectively.

Use games like bingo, pairs, quizzes, mnemonics, story-telling etc. to help you.

Check the App store and Google play for revision apps

TOP TIPS

Be realistic about what you can achieve but remember it is all about trial and error. Even if it goes wrong, you can always adjust your timetable.

TOP TIPS

Don't spend ages making your timetable look pretty. It a working document not a piece of Art!

WHAT DO I NEED TO REVISE?

Things to do:

A LIST OF TOPICS for each exam . Use your Smith Proformas as a guide.

This will give you a starting point for revision.

Learn the things you don't know FIRST.

By failing to prepare,
you are preparing to fail.

Benjamin Franklin

HOW DO I REVISE.....

HOW DO I REVISE....

Give yourself a break

5 MINUTES every 40 MINUTES
- your brain needs a break.

You work best in short bursts - BUT ONLY 5 minutes otherwise you begin to forget.

E.g. Work for 40 minutes, play on phone for 5.

25 mins – 2
minute break

40 mins – 5
minute break

...AND FINALLY

Always end a revision session by summing up or testing yourself.

Avoid any interruptions during the allocated revision slots...phones, games, food, drink etc.

Keep a bottle of water nearby.

Clear wherever you work of all clutter, apart from what is relevant to that session.

Give yourself something to look forward to or some kind of reward after revision sessions.
